Step one: under Finder and click on Go. Then hold down your Alt key. You should now see the library [it was hidden before]. Click on the library, and then choose Application Support. If the display is hard to see, chose the list option.

Choose Microsoft, Office and User Templates, drag and drop the template into this folder.

Start powerpoint and choose new from template.

Then choose my template—done.